Civil Case No. 1:20-cv-05593 (RA)

FOURTH AMENDED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

TRIGGER WARNING:
THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS HIGHLY GRAPHIC INFORMATION OF A SEXUAL NATURE, INCLUDING SEXUAL ASSAULT

Plaintiff, as and for her Third Amended Complaint against Defendants Fox News Network, LLC (“Fox News” or the “Company”) and Ed Henry (together, “Defendants”) alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. In July 2020, after Ms. Eckhart filed her original Complaint in this action – alleging, inter alia, that she had been sexually harassed and assaulted, and raped, by Defendant Ed Henry – Fox News attempted to defend itself to the mounting public outcry by claiming that it had no knowledge of sexual misconduct by Defendant Henry prior to June 2020. This was not true.

2. As Fox News was well aware, Defendant Henry had a long history of sexual misconduct involving women, and particularly female employees. And, contrary to Fox News’ claims, far from punishing Defendant Henry for his vile misconduct, Fox News has repeatedly rewarded him with a series of promotions that only increased his prominence.

3. In 2016, Defendant Henry was suspended by Fox News for four months after news broke that he had an affair with a Las Vegas stripper. At this time, Fox Business Network anchor Liz Claman told Ms. Eckhart, “everyone at Fox News knows that [Mr.] Henry is a sex addict. That’s no secret.”

4. It also was recently reported that Defendant Henry was required to complete a sex addiction rehabilitation program in order to return to work at Fox News. Yet, Fox News took no steps to ensure the safety of its female employees upon his return from suspension notwithstanding the fact that, according to reporting, it was an “open secret” at Fox News that Defendant Henry was a serial harasser who used his power to prey on younger female employees.

5. Moreover, in mid-2016, as multiple media reports revealed that Fox News was the home to many of the serial sexual harassers exposed by the #MeToo movement, an outside law firm was retained to conduct a series of Company-wide investigations into issues of sexual harassment. During the investigations, multiple women came forward to complain that Defendant Henry had engaged in sexually inappropriate conduct towards them. These reports were received by multiple members of Fox News’ senior management.

6. Fox News also received a written complaint that warned against giving Defendant Henry a greater role at the Company and stated that “the prospect of [Mr.] Henry’s greater prominence on Fox [News] was crushing for female colleagues after the network had promised sweeping changes following Ailes’ ouster.”

7. Nevertheless, Fox News looked the other way and failed to protect its female employees from Defendant Henry because he was one of Fox News’ highest-rated anchors, which, of course, translated to successful ratings and revenue for Fox News. Indeed, it has been reported that Defendant Henry was a “favorite of the network’s senior management,” including current Chief Executive Officer Suzanne Scott.

8. Fox News ignored the many, many red flags, and rewarded Defendant Henry with a series of promotions, culminating in a highly coveted promotion to co-anchor of the three-hour long program, “America’s Newsroom.”

9. As Fox News’ female employees had rightly feared, and Ms. Eckhart was to unfortunately learn, giving Defendant Henry increasing prominence at the Company only emboldened him and encouraged him to escalate his mistreatment of women.

10. As a young woman just starting her journalism career, Ms. Eckhart was especially susceptible to Defendant Henry’s predatory grooming techniques. Defendant Henry repeatedly hounded Ms. Eckart, insisting that she join him for drinks in exchange for the prospect of career advancement. He later sexually assaulted her, physically forcing her to perform oral sex on him at Fox News’ New York headquarters.

11. After sexually assaulting Ms. Eckhart without repercussions, Defendant Henry violently raped Ms. Eckhart in February 2017, after which he sent her threatening messages boasting about the rape and how he physically injured her.

12. Ms. Eckhart is not Defendant Henry’s only victim. Indeed, he has subjected at least more than half a dozen other women, including current Fox News female employees, to sexual misconduct and/or abuse, as described herein.

13. When Ms. Eckhart sought to hold Fox News and Defendant Henry accountable for this violent rape by retaining legal counsel and filing this lawsuit, Fox News only escalated its retaliatory conduct by filing a baseless motion for sanctions against Ms. Eckhart’s counsel. Defendant Henry also doubled down by “victim shaming” Ms. Eckhart, publicly filing what he claimed were nude and partially nude pictures of her on this court's docket, where they were visible to the world. Upon information and belief, Fox News participated in and acquiesced to this conduct.

14. This depraved and perverted conduct on behalf of Fox News, Defendant Henry and his legal counsel is simply abhorrent, and only served to greatly increase the trauma Ms. Eckhart is experiencing as a result of coming forward so bravely against her abuser and former workplace. Ms. Eckhart looks forward to holding Defendants accountable for their unlawful behavior.

15. Accordingly, Ms. Eckhart brings this action seeking injunctive, declaratory and monetary relief against Defendants in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e, et seq. ("Title VII"), federal sex trafficking laws, 18 U.S.C. § 1591, et seq., the New York State Human Rights Law, N.Y. Exec. Law §§ 290, et seq. ("NYSHRL"), the New York City Human Rights Law, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8-101, et seq. ("NYCHRL"), the Gender Motivated Violence Act, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8-901, et seq. ("GMVA") and New York Civil Rights Law, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 52-b, et seq. ("CRL § 52").

ADMINISTRATIVE PREREQUISITES

16. Ms. Eckhart previously filed a Charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") alleging violations of Title VII. On September 15, 2020, Ms. Eckhart received her Notice of Right to Sue from the EEOC.

17. Any and all other prerequisites to the filing of this suit have been met.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

18. This Court has jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343, as this action asserts violations of Title VII and 18 U.S.C. § 1591, et seq., and therefore raises federal questions regarding the deprivation of Plaintiff's rights. The Court has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's related claims arising under state and city law pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

19. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b), venue is proper in this Court because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to this action, including the unlawful employment practices alleged herein, occurred in this district.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

I. MS. ECKHART JOINS FOX NEWS

23. On January 2, 2013, Ms. Eckhart began working at Fox News as a Freelance Administrative Assistant to Ms. Claman, who anchors "Countdown to the Closing Bell" on the Fox Business Network.

24. Ms. Eckhart was informed that her job would entail assisting Ms. Claman with creative story ideas, managing Ms. Claman's appearances, making phone calls to book certain on-air guests and assisting with scheduling, as well as other work-related administrative assignments.

25. Instead, Ms. Claman demanded that Ms. Eckhart perform a variety of humiliating tasks including, but not limited to, cleaning and organizing Ms. Claman's shoes, organizing and color-coordinating Ms. Claman's dresses, cleaning Ms. Claman's office and refrigerator, dropping off a purse of hers to get repaired at Louis Vuitton, being asked to zip and unzip Ms. Claman's dresses off and on before and after every single on-air appearance, picking up Ms. Claman's dry-cleaning, getting Ms. Claman lunch and coffee (oftentimes even having to pay with her own money), being subjected to Ms. Claman undressing in front of her inside her office at Fox on numerous occasions (which would lead to her walking around her office in front of Ms. Eckhart in nothing but underwear) and even babysitting Ms. Claman's daughter outside of normal office hours.

26. Ms. Eckhart put her head down and performed these tasks without complaint, yet she was still further belittled and mistreated by Ms. Claman. By way of only one example, after Ms. Eckhart ordered Ms. Claman pizza for lunch one day, Ms. Claman reprimanded her over corporate work email for ordering "the worst pizza [she] ha[s] ever had." When Ms. Eckhart apologized, Ms. Claman responded, over email, "NEVER AGAIN!" This was the first of many abusive emails Ms. Eckhart received during the course of her employment at Fox News.

27. By way of another example, Ms. Eckhart received an email from Ms. Claman reprimanding her for booking a former United States Senator, who she claimed is "hated by [Washington,] D.C." Ms. Claman went on to excoriate Ms. Eckhart (and her team) over email stating, "You need to tell [fill-in anchor] this is not [Stuart] Varney or 'Mornings with Maria' [Bartirromo] where we give people a pass or say things like 'the main stream media ignores blah blah blah.' ['Countdown to the Closing Bell'] is not Trump State TV."

28. On one documented occasion, Ms. Claman called another former producer of hers at Fox Business “a retard” while caught on a hot microphone on set during a commercial break. This is just a few examples of Ms. Claman’s frequent berating and belittling of her production staff in person and over corporate email.

29. On days that Ms. Claman would be absent from her anchor duties, Ms. Eckhart’s production staff would regularly “celebrate” her absence due to not having to withstand Ms. Claman’s incessant verbal, written and emotional abuse. On numerous occasions, Ms. Eckhart’s manager, Brad Hirst would order the production staff lunch as a way of ‘celebrating’ Ms. Claman’s absence, thereby admitting to the toxic abuse to which Ms. Eckhart and her staff would often be subjected under his leadership.

30. In June 2013, Ms. Eckhart received a nominal promotion (without a pay raise) to Production Assistant after receiving a stellar performance evaluation from her former manager, Kevin Burke. Specifically, Mr. Burke praised Ms. Eckhart’s “work ethic, attitude, production skills and ability to work under deadline pressure.”

31. Subsequently, Fox News promoted Ms. Eckhart twice during the course of her tenure, first to Booker and then to Associate Producer.

32. Ms. Eckhart performed a variety of roles during her more than seven years at Fox News including, inter alia: (i) producing “Countdown to the Closing Bell;” (ii) writing and producing interview segments for Fox News and Fox Business with headline newsmakers, such as Berkshire Hathaway CEO Warren Buffett, Tesla and SpaceX CEO Elon Musk and Microsoft co-founder Bill Gates; (iii) appearing as a frequent on-air guest on Tom Shillue’s Fox News Radio show, in addition to being a regular on-air personality featured on Fox Nation including Tom Shillue’s “The Quiz Show;” (iv) serving as an on-air personality for a variety of other shows on Fox News (including “Your World with Neil Cavuto”); (v) producing live broadcasts from the floor of the New York Stock Exchange; (vi) producing CES live from Las Vegas; (vii) producing segments for the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland; and (viii) interviewing celebrities, business leaders and high profile athletes on the red carpet for feature stories that are currently published on Fox News’ and Fox Business’ websites.

33. Throughout her employment, Ms. Eckhart received substantial praise for her outstanding work performance and dedication, often in the face of incredible pressure. By way of example only:

- On August 14, 2014, Ms. Claman wrote to Ms. Eckhart over email, “You are truly the kindest and best.”
- On December 7, 2015, the Senior Vice President of Programming at Fox Business, Thomas Bowman, emailed Ms. Eckhart congratulating her on her stellar on-camera reporting for a package she put together for the Company stating, “You’re wasting your time here [at Fox News]... you should be on TV becoming a star.”
- On December 22, 2015, Mr. Hirst wrote Ms. Eckhart a hand-written letter stating, “Thank you for making [‘Countdown to the Closing Bell’] ‘must see TV!’ I appreciate your hard work and dedication. Congratulations on your promotion.”
- On July 1, 2016, in one of Ms. Eckhart’s employee performance evaluations, Mr. Hirst wrote, “Ms. Eckhart was promoted to researcher/booker and has played a major role in the success of a small, but dedicated team that has grown the ratings of the show over 100% over the course of the last year.”
- On July 1, 2017, in one of Ms. Eckhart’s most glowing performance evaluations, Mr. Hirst wrote, “Ms. Eckhart often handles multiple segments per day, including the crucial A block reporter hit. Ms. Eckhart may be the best news writer on the team, and understands the urgency of adding the most up-to-the-minute detail of every story she writes. Ms. Eckhart is an invaluable part of the ‘Countdown to the Closing Bell’ team at Fox Business, and has limitless potential.”

- In December 2019, Ms. Claman gave a hand-written, personalized card to Ms. Eckhart, stating, “Thank you for that ‘special something’ you always add to your segments and for being so great! Thanks for all your hard work and for putting up with all the drama we deal with. Xo, Liz.”
- Similarly, on December 12, 2019, Mr. Hirst praised Ms. Eckhart by writing her a note that said, “Thank you for making my life easier each day! May 2020 bring you much joy.”
- Finally, on February 6, 2020, Ms. Eckhart received a congratulatory email from Ms. Claman in which she praised Ms. Eckhart’s producing skills writing, “Highest rated segment was yours on Peloton!! Woo hoo!” Ms. Claman proceeded to forward a copy of the successful overnight ratings, of which Ms. Eckhart contributed to, with Rupert Murdoch, Lachlan Murdoch, Jay Wallace, Lauren Petterson and Suzanne Scott on the email chain.

34. This last email was sent just before Ms. Eckhart complained about a toxic environment, immediately after which she was put on a “Performance Improvement Plan” and eventually terminated.

II. DEFENDANT HENRY PREYS ON MS. ECKHART

35. Unfortunately, Ms. Eckhart’s outstanding performance did nothing to protect her from becoming a target of Defendant Henry’s vile sexual misconduct.

36. At some point in 2014, when Ms. Eckhart was only 24 years old, Defendant Henry, who was, at the time, Fox News’ Chief White House Correspondent based out of Washington, D.C., began following her on Twitter.

37. Shortly thereafter, Defendant Henry – who was married at the time – sent Ms. Eckhart a Direct Message (“DM”) on Twitter that said only, “beautiful.”

38. Ms. Eckhart was naturally put off by Defendant Henry's inappropriate message. But, given Defendant Henry's stature at Fox News, and the fact that Ms. Eckhart was, at the time, a 24-year-old recent graduate of journalism school who was just starting her career at Fox News, Ms. Eckhart felt compelled to respond. She made it clear, however, that she was not romantically interested in Defendant Henry by shifting the discussion to work. Specifically, Ms. Eckhart told Defendant Henry that she was a fan of his work and that it would be an honor to meet him one day.

39. Defendant Henry replied by stating that he just so happened to be at Fox News' New York offices that day and asked that Ms. Eckhart come meet him in one of the green rooms prior to his on-air appearance as the "One Lucky Guy" on Fox News' all-female show "Outnumbered."

40. Ms. Eckhart obliged, but when they met, she shook his hand, kept things strictly professional and in no way gave any indication that she was romantically interested in Defendant Henry. Defendant Henry nevertheless asked Ms. Eckhart if she wanted to have her picture taken with him. Ms. Eckhart agreed, and the two had their picture taken.

41. Later that day, Defendant Henry sent Ms. Eckhart yet another Twitter DM in which he asked her to send him a copy of the picture that the two had taken together. Ms. Eckhart did so, and Defendant Henry gratuitously responded, "You are way more beautiful in person."

42. When Ms. Eckhart failed to reciprocate Defendant Henry's romantic overtures, he persisted, continuing to DM her and asked her to get drinks with him. While Ms. Eckhart was outwardly cordial, Defendant Henry's unrelenting advances made her uncomfortable, so she made up an excuse to get out of meeting him for drinks. Defendant Henry, who was intent on pursuing Ms. Eckhart despite her rejections, wrote to her in an e-mail, “Yep. Hard to get.”

43. From that moment on, Ms. Eckhart became a sexual target of Defendant Henry. Twice Ms. Eckhart’s age, Defendant Henry continued to send unsolicited inappropriate, flirtatious and, at times, sexually disturbing and graphic text messages to Ms. Eckhart. He also continued to ask her out for drinks. Ms. Eckhart, a young, early-in-career journalist in fear of losing her job, felt pressured and compelled to respond and, to a degree, “play along” with Defendant Henry, an extremely powerful man at both Fox News and the White House.

44. However, Ms. Eckhart repeatedly refused to meet Defendant Henry for drinks. Undeterred, Defendant Henry continued to act inappropriately and continued to try to pressure Ms. Eckhart into having drinks with him. Finally, after several months of being worn down by Defendant Henry’s advances, Ms. Eckhart agreed to meet him for one drink.

45. Defendant Henry was in New York City at the time for work staying at the New York Marriott Marquis, one of the hotels where Fox News frequently lodges its traveling employees. The two met at the bar at the hotel for a drink.

46. Far from having any romantic interest in Defendant Henry, Ms. Eckhart brought a list of career-related questions she had compiled on a yellow legal pad for their meeting, hoping that she could learn from Defendant Henry as she was seeking a journalism mentor at Fox News.

47. Ms. Eckhart felt extremely nervous and intimidated during their in-person conversation as she told him about her work as a Production Assistant and asked for his advice on how to further her career. During their discussion, three women approached Defendant Henry and asked to have their picture taken with him. Ms. Eckhart asked Defendant Henry if women approached him asking for pictures regularly, and he responded, “It happens all the time,” which further underscored Defendant Henry’s influential nature.

48. After the two finished their drinks, Defendant Henry asked Ms. Eckhart to have another drink in his hotel room. Ms. Eckhart did not want to go, but she was fearful of the repercussions of refusing a request by one of the most powerful on-air figures at Fox News, her employer.

49. As soon as the two entered his hotel room, Defendant Henry, out of nowhere, began forcefully kissing Ms. Eckhart, shoving his tongue down her throat and ripped off her dress. Ultimately, Ms. Eckhart, fearing that her career would be over if she refused Defendant Henry’s sexual advances, felt frozen and trapped, and relented to sexual intercourse with him against her will.

50. After having extremely brief sexual intercourse, Defendant Henry told Ms. Eckhart how beautiful she was, said she belonged in front of the camera, and that she was “wasting her time” as a Production Assistant behind the scenes at Fox News. Instead, Defendant Henry offered to help advance Ms. Eckhart’s career, telling her that he could “get her in a room with some really powerful people.”

51. The message was clear: Ms. Eckhart would be rewarded for succumbing to Defendant Henry’s sexual advances as he would use his powerful position at Fox News to advance her journalism career. Alternatively, if she refused, she risked being punished (i.e., be fired from her job).

52. When she got home that evening, Ms. Eckhart, who was distraught at the prospect of having to sleep with Defendant Henry in order to keep her dream job of working at a national news network, cried herself to sleep. Ms. Eckhart, at the age of 24, remained in fear that if she did not comply, she risked being blackballed in her industry at such an early stage of her journalism career.

III. DEFENDANT HENRY SEXUALLY ASSAULTS MS. ECKHART

53. Ms. Eckhart managed to avoid Defendant Henry for a few months, but in September 2015, Defendant Henry was, once again, back in Fox News' New York offices.

54. Defendant Henry sent Ms. Eckhart a message on WhatsApp, an instant messaging application that Defendant Henry had previously told Ms. Eckhart to download and only use when communicating with him. In that message, Defendant Henry demanded that Ms. Eckhart remove her underwear, while at work at Fox News, and put them in an envelope for him. This, of course, was an extremely humiliating and disgusting request. But, in fear knowing that she would face retaliation if she refused to comply, Ms. Eckhart did so. Defendant Henry came to Ms. Eckhart's desk on the 12th floor at Fox Business to retrieve the envelope.

55. Later that day, Defendant Henry demanded that Ms. Eckhart meet him in one of the Guest Offices on the 17th floor of the Fox News building despite Ms. Eckhart informing him that she was extremely busy at work.

56. When Ms. Eckhart arrived at the room, Defendant Henry was on the phone. Ms. Eckhart repeatedly indicated to him that she had to leave because a car was waiting for her outside to take her and Ms. Claman to the New York Stock Exchange for a live broadcast.

57. Rather than letting Ms. Eckhart leave to perform her work duties, Defendant Henry hung up the phone, shut the office door and pinned Ms. Eckhart to the wall inside the Guest Office at Fox News. Defendant Henry began subjecting her to forceful and unwanted kissing. He then quickly unzipped his pants, and physically used his hand to force Ms. Eckhart's head down to his penis. While forcefully moving Ms. Eckhart's head back and forth while grabbing onto her hair, Defendant Henry physically forced her to perform oral sex on him against her will. After Defendant Henry came, Ms. Eckhart immediately ran out of the office in a state of shock, panic and fear.

58. Although Ms. Eckhart was able to avoid seeing Defendant Henry after the September 2015 sexual assault on Fox News' property, he continued to send her lewd and extremely graphic pornographic images, videos and gifs.

59. In one email to Ms. Eckhart he wrote, "I'd like to wipe you with my tongue."

IV. DEFENDANT HENRY RAPES MS. ECKHART

60. In the Fall of 2016, after Defendant Henry returned from his suspension from Fox News (as described infra), Defendant Henry sent Ms. Eckhart yet another completely unsolicited message. Defendant Henry sent her a YouTube link to a song entitled "Save a Horse, Ride a Cowboy." Ms. Eckhart, confused, asked Defendant Henry if he was trying to tell her something. He responded, "That I want you to ride ME?" "Yesss" "I am telling you that!!"

61. Defendant Henry's inappropriate and often unsolicited sexual messages to Ms. Eckhart continued, but took a dark and extremely violent turn, as he revealed an apparent obsession with Bondage/Discipline/Dominance/Submission (commonly referred to as BDSM) related sex practices. In early 2017, after demanding that Ms. Eckhart send him a picture of herself in lingerie, Defendant Henry sent the below message to Ms. Eckhart:

62. Shortly thereafter, Defendant Henry asked Ms. Eckhart to meet him again in person. Out of fear, Ms. Eckhart came up with an excuse by telling Defendant Henry in a text message that she had a date and was very busy. Defendant Henry proceeded to accuse Ms. Eckhart, again, of playing “Hard to get.” Ms. Eckhart, fearful that Defendant Henry was unhappy (and in fear that he would retaliate against her professionally), said that she always makes herself available to him.¹ Defendant Henry responded, “#obey” “[o]r” “#discipline.”

63. In another wildly inappropriate string of text messages, Defendant Henry wrote that “the more impaired [Ms. Eckhart was] the better.” He also wrote that he liked Ms. Eckhart “owned and submissive” and asked her for “[m]ore anal” sex (Ms. Eckhart did not at any time have anal sex with Defendant Henry).

64. In February 2017, Defendant Henry, again, asked Ms. Eckhart to meet him; this time for a drink at Fresco by Scotto, a New York City restaurant and frequent gathering place of Fox News employees. Ms. Eckhart was afraid that if she refused again, Defendant Henry would retaliate – indeed, he explicitly told her that if she did not “obey” him, she would be “disciplined.” Ms. Eckhart knew that the restaurant would be busy, and that she would likely run into other individuals employed by Fox News there, as the restaurant is owned by a local Fox affiliate anchor in New York City. Therefore, she felt safe at that particular facility.

65. When Ms. Eckhart met Defendant Henry for a drink, he told her that Fox News was rewarding him with “his very own show.” This, of course, would make Defendant Henry even more powerful at Fox News. Accordingly, Ms. Eckhart was now even more intimidated, particularly since he had sent her a message stating that she had better comply with his demands “or else...” Defendant Henry asked Ms. Eckhart over drinks if she had an agent, offered to introduce her to his agent (one of the most powerful agents in the journalism industry) and told her that he would bring Ms. Eckhart on his future “new show” at Fox News as a frequent on-air guest.

66. After drinks, Defendant Henry invited Ms. Eckhart to take a walk to further discuss her career opportunities at his hotel in midtown Manhattan, where Fox News frequently lodged its visiting employees, which was a short walk from Fresco by Scotto. Ms. Eckhart attempted to avoid being alone with Defendant Henry in his hotel by claiming that she could not go because her high heels were hurting her feet. Defendant Henry ignored her protestations, grabbed her hand and pulled her to his hotel. Out of extreme fear and concern for keeping her job, Ms. Eckhart complied.

67. Ms. Eckhart never could have imagined what would happen next.

68. Instead of discussing Ms. Eckhart’s future career prospects at Fox News, the moment that Defendant Henry and Ms. Eckhart entered his hotel room, Defendant Henry, yet again, forced himself upon Ms. Eckhart, pinning her against a wall, and forcefully ripped off the coat and dress she was wearing.

69. Defendant Henry then immediately forced Ms. Eckhart's hands behind her back and applied metal handcuffs to Ms. Eckhart's wrists to restrain her.

70. Ms. Eckhart pleaded with Defendant Henry, telling him that the handcuffs were painful and hurting her wrists. Defendant Henry did not stop or remove the handcuffs. Instead, he threw Ms. Eckhart onto the hotel bed naked, helpless and handcuffed. Defendant Henry bragged to Ms. Eckhart that they were "real, authentic metal handcuffs," that he got from "a friend of his who is a cop," which frightened Ms. Eckhart.

71. Defendant Henry then proceeded to laugh at Ms. Eckhart and take humiliating naked photographs of her on his iPhone as she laid naked, helpless, afraid and restrained on the bed in handcuffs. She, again, pleaded for him to stop and demanded that Defendant Henry delete the naked photos he took of her on his phone without her consent. Defendant Henry, again, simply laughed at Ms. Eckhart and did not delete the photos. Ms. Eckhart realized at that moment that Defendant Henry was taking these degrading photographs of her to hold as collateral in an effort to blackmail her, and to ensure her silence so that she never exposed his vile misconduct.

72. In doing so, Defendant Henry took a page out of the playbook of Roger Ailes, the former disgraced Chairman and CEO of Fox News, who allegedly videotaped and forced one of his female victims to dance for him half-naked. Mr. Ailes allegedly kept the videotape of his victim in a safe deposit box as blackmail in case she ever exposed his behavior; therefore, Ms. Eckhart felt the exact same thing was happening before her eyes and she began to panic.

73. When Defendant Henry was done taking photographs of Ms. Eckhart, he proceeded to forcefully rape Ms. Eckhart while she was still restrained and helpless in handcuffs. While raping Ms. Eckhart, Defendant Henry performed painful sadistic acts on Ms. Eckhart, which included, among many other things, violently hitting her in the face multiple times while she remained handcuffed.

74. Ms. Eckhart did not consent to any part of this violent, painful rape.

75. Ms. Eckhart left the hotel in a state of shock, bruised and battered with bloody wrists and a bloody lip. She flagged a taxi to take her home, and even the taxicab driver asked if she was physically okay (she was not).

76. The next day, Defendant Henry texted Ms. Eckhart an angel face emoji saying it was “nice to meet her for a quick drink,” completely omitting the fact that he had violently raped her. Ms. Eckhart informed Defendant Henry that he had physically injured her. Specifically, she told him in text messages that she had sore wrists (they were actually bleeding), a mark on her buttocks, a broken nail and a bruise on her leg, among other serious injuries to her body.

77. Defendant Henry did not even attempt to hide the fact that he was extremely violent with Ms. Eckhart, and proceeded to send her even more WhatsApp messages while co-anchoring “Fox & Friends” that read, “You’ll cum back for more,” “Will let you know,” “If/when avail” “so you can get slapped around some more” and “Gona make you my little whore again.” He also wrote, “You know” “Who” “Your daddy” “Is[.]” “Good long session last time[.]” “Left you bruised[,] batter[ed][,] dazed.” Defendant Henry further admitted the sadistic and non-consensual nature of his actions when he wrote to Ms. Eckhart “When u r owned” “U don’t get a” “choice.”

78. Then, on Valentine's Day, 2017, Defendant Henry texted Ms. Eckhart, "Again please," as well as another text in which he again admitted to leaving Ms. Eckhart "bruised" and "battered." Ms. Eckhart informed Defendant Henry in a text message that she was "STILL bruised and battered," to which Defendant Henry disgustingly replied by saying that Ms. Eckhart needed to "take her punishment."

79. Later that same day, Defendant Henry wrote: "Fuck you and your safe word. You will know when I am done." Ms. Eckhart never had a "safe word," and was extremely afraid and confused by Defendant Henry's violent and unsolicited language over text.

80. When Ms. Eckhart tried to end the conversation by saying that Defendant Henry needed to be nicer to her because it was Valentine's Day, he responded, "Nah. Valentine my ass." When Ms. Eckhart, again, attempted to end the conversation by sending two emojis to Defendant Henry, he responded violently, "Get on your knees again and I'll give you your valentine."

81. The next day, Defendant Henry texted Ms. Eckhart, informing her that he would be guest-hosting Tucker Carlson's show on Fox News' "Tucker Carlson Tonight." He asked Ms. Eckhart to watch him anchor the show and proceeded to text her throughout the program while he was ostensibly anchoring one of the highest rated shows at Fox News, demonstrating a clear display of his professional power.

V. FOX NEWS UNLAWFULLY TERMINATES MS. ECKHART'S EMPLOYMENT AFTER DEFENDANT HENRY'S CONTINUED HARASSMENT AND RETALIATION

82. Following the incredibly painful rape and Defendant Henry's violent follow-up messages, Ms. Eckhart made every possible effort to cease all communications with Defendant Henry as she was in fear for her safety.

83. Unfortunately, however, Ms. Eckhart was forced to continue seeing her abuser walk the halls of Fox News' New York City offices. On more than one occasion, Ms. Eckhart saw Defendant Henry approaching and ran inside one of the bathrooms at Fox News to hide from him, which is a normal "fight-or-flight" triggered response after a traumatic event.

84. Because Ms. Eckhart refused to even come near Defendant Henry, he continued to harass and retaliate against her for rejecting his continued advances.

85. By way of example, on October 5, 2018, Ms. Eckhart saw Defendant Henry approaching her at the Fox News offices. She immediately turned around and walked in the opposite direction. This angered Defendant Henry, who e-mailed her later that day saying, "Why'd you turn away today?" This made clear to Ms. Eckhart that Defendant Henry believed he had the right and power to control her conduct within the premises of Fox News, further demonstrating his use of his position to exercise dominion over her. Ms. Eckhart never responded to his message.

86. Less than three weeks later, Defendant Henry again attempted to engage with Ms. Eckhart by sending her a Twitter DM that said, “YO!” Ms. Eckhart, again, did not respond.

87. By way of another example at the offices of Fox News in New York, Ms. Eckhart, yet again, tried to ignore and even physically ran away from Defendant Henry to avoid having any interaction with him. Defendant Henry texted Ms. Eckhart an image of a football player doing “the Heisman pose,” implying she was trying to get away from him, which she was.

88. After Ms. Eckhart repeatedly ignored and rejected Defendant Henry’s continued advances, Defendant Henry quietly unfollowed Ms. Eckhart on Instagram in 2018, and conspicuously removed dozens of “likes” he had given to photos of her. Defendant Henry was trying to cover up his interactions with Ms. Eckhart after he realized that she would no longer engage with him. It became evident that Defendant Henry now viewed Ms. Eckhart, his work colleague, as a liability for him and his lucrative on-air career at Fox News.

89. In December 2019, despite the fact that Fox News was well aware of Defendant Henry’s inappropriate sexual misconduct (see infra), it announced that Defendant Henry was promoted to the position of co-anchor of the “America’s Newsroom” program.

90. On February 10, 2020, Ms. Eckhart bravely came forward and attempted to expose the toxic work environment she had been experiencing while employed at Fox News. Specifically, during a conversation with Denise Collins, the Senior Vice President of Human Resources at Fox News, and Mr. Hirst, she informed them about the abuse and hostility that she had endured for years. Although Ms. Eckhart did not explicitly mention sexual harassment or misconduct, under the circumstances Ms. Collins and Mr. Hirst should have and, upon information and belief, did understand Ms. Eckhart to be “complaining” about unlawful harassment.

91. Ms. Collins and Mr. Hirst ignored Ms. Eckhart's obvious plea for help, and never followed up with Ms. Eckhart about her genuine concerns in this regard, nor did either make any effort to investigate or remediate the toxic working environment she complained about. To the contrary, Mr. Hirst told Ms. Eckhart to "prepare herself to face repercussions" if she lodged any further complaints. For her part, Ms. Collins turned to Mr. Hirst during their meeting with Ms. Eckhart, and asked him whether he thought the environment at Fox News was toxic. Mr. Hirst responded, "no," and that seemed to satisfy Ms. Collins.

92. Instead of addressing Ms. Eckhart's completely valid concerns, Fox News instead decided to put Ms. Eckhart on a purported "Performance Improvement Plan" ("PIP") after she had dedicated more than seven years of her life to the Company. Ms. Eckhart was put on this PIP notwithstanding having received countless hand-written cards and emails of praise from her superiors, including Mr. Hirst, Ms. Claman, Fox Business Network Senior Vice President Gary Schreier and Senior Vice President of Programming, Thomas Bowman, in recognition of her continued hard work, success and dedication to the Company. See supra at ¶¶ 30-33.

93. Thereafter, on June 9, 2020, Ms. Eckhart received an email from Mr. Hirst informing her that 2020 performance evaluations would be suspended due to the extraordinary events that challenge everyday work routines caused by the Covid-19 pandemic. Mr. Hirst wrote to Ms. Eckhart and the rest of her production staff, "In the next few weeks, I will schedule a Zoom meeting with each of you to discuss your performance and your future growth as television professionals."

94. However, Ms. Eckhart never received such an invitation for the scheduled Zoom call that was promised by Mr. Hirst. Instead, on June 12, 2020, Fox News further retaliated against Ms. Eckhart by informing her that her employment would be terminated effective June 26, 2020, after more than seven years of employment. Incredibly, during Ms. Eckhart’s “exit meeting” with both Mr. Hirst and Ms. Collins, Ms. Collins asked Ms. Eckhart if she had been sexually harassed and/or assaulted while employed by Fox News. Clearly, Fox News had understood Ms. Eckhart’s February 2020 complaints to encompass such unlawful harassment and made the unilateral decision to take no further action until after it had already terminated her employment.

VI. FOX NEWS’ INSTITUTIONAL APATHY TOWARDS SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

95. Fox News, unfortunately, has engaged in a lengthy and unsavory pattern and practice of ignoring and covering up sexual misconduct while protecting the individuals who engage in it.

96. The #MeToo movement ignited after former Fox News anchor Gretchen Carlson, and at least 20 other women, accused then-Fox News Chairman and CEO Roger Ailes, of sexual misconduct. See, e.g., https://www.huffpost.com/entry/roger-ailes-accusers-list_n_57a9fa19e4b06e52746db865.

97. Shortly thereafter, Bill Shine, who Fox News installed as Co-President of the Company after Ailes’ departure, left Fox News following accusations that he aided and abetted the sexual harassment crimes of Roger Ailes. See, e.g., <https://www.nytimes.com/2018/07/05/us/politics/bill-shine-fox-news.html>. Indeed, as one former Fox News Senior Producer – Jane Doe 4 – wrote to Ms. Eckhart, “we know Bill [Shine] knew everything about Roger [Ailes].”

98. Later, reports were published that exposed the lengthy history of sexual harassment allegations against Fox News’ biggest and highest earning star, Bill O’Reilly, including reports that Fox News offered him a massive $100 million contract over four years notwithstanding its prior knowledge of his sexual misconduct. See, e.g.,

<https://www.nytimes.com/2017/04/01/business/media/bill-oreilly-sexual-harassment-fox-news.html>; <https://www.nytimes.com/2017/10/21/business/media/bill-oreilly-sexual-harassment.html>.

99. Specifically, by January 2017, Fox News was aware that Mr. O'Reilly had entered into at least six settlement claims of sexual harassment, including a January 2017 settlement of a claim involving allegations of "repeated harassment, a nonconsensual sexual relationship and the sending of gay pornography and other sexually explicit material." See <https://www.nytimes.com/2017/10/21/business/media/bill-oreilly-sexual-harassment.html>.

100. One month later, in February 2017, Fox News renewed Mr. O'Reilly's contract for four years at an unjustifiable amount of $25 million per year. Incredibly, when confronted about this by the New York Times, the Company said, "Fox News 'surely would have wanted to renew' Mr. O'Reilly's contract, noting that 'he was the biggest star in cable TV.'" See <https://www.nytimes.com/2017/10/21/business/media/bill-oreilly-sexual-harassment.html>.

101. This is a direct admission that Fox News is willing to retain individuals who are known to repeatedly engage in unlawful acts of sexual misconduct, so long as they are profitable. Indeed, Mr. O'Reilly was only terminated by Fox News months later when advertisers started dropping his show, "The O'Reilly Factor," and the Murdoch family learned that federal prosecutors were on the verge of learning about his bombshell January 2017 settlement. See <https://www.nytimes.com/2017/10/21/business/media/bill-oreilly-sexual-harassment.html>; <https://www.forbes.com/sites/maddieberg/2017/04/04/here-are-all-the-advertisers-who-have-dropped-bill-oreilly/?sh=24d69c377987>.

102. In a desperate attempt to try to salvage what remained of Fox News’ documented history and reputation of animus toward women in the workplace, Fox News made the strategic decision to promote a female, Suzanne Scott, to be its current Chief Executive Officer, notwithstanding the fact that a litany of individuals allege that she, too, covered up claims of sexual harassment, including those perpetrated by Mr. Ailes. See, e.g., <https://www.theguardian.com/media/2018/may/17/suzanne-scott-who-is-she-fox-news-ceo-female-miniskirt-rule>. Moreover, as put by a former Fox News Senior Producer, “Suzanne was Bill [S]hine’s partner in crime.”

103. In recent weeks alone, multiple additional Fox News on-air personalities (both former and one current) have been accused of sexual assault and sexual harassment. However, staying true to its long and well-documented history of apathy toward such accusations, Fox News continues to reward and employ Judge Andrew Napolitano, as well as on-air personality George Murdoch, known to Fox News viewers as “Tyrus,” even after serious sexual assault allegations (Judge Napolitano) and sexual harassment allegations (Tyrus) were brought against them. See, e.g., <https://www.cnn.com/2020/10/01/media/kimberly-guilfoyle-fox-allegations/index.html>; <https://www.businessinsider.com/fox-news-analyst-andrew-napolitano-accused-of-sexual-assault-2020-9>; <https://www.latimes.com/entertainment-arts/business/story/2019-12-10/britt-mchenry-sues-fox-news-tyrus-sexual-harassment-claim-former-un-pc-co-host>.

104. Fox News’ institutional apathy and unwillingness to stamp out sexual harassment and abuse in the workplace is borne out of its view that profits are more important than the physical and mental wellbeing of its female employees. The “Fox News Fear Factory,” originally instituted by Mr. Ailes, unfortunately continues to silence victims while promoting a culture of fear that enables women to be sexually harassed and assaulted by some of the Company's highest earning stars.

105. In other words, so long as the abusers and perpetrators continue to “line the pockets” of Fox News by helping its bottom line and boosting its ad revenue, Fox News looks the other way.

106. Despite Fox News accruing a seemingly never-ending plethora of sexual abuse, harassment and assault allegations depicting a misogynist workplace and advertiser boycotts, from Fox News' toxically skewed vantage point, “Business has never been better!”

107. By way of just one example, on an earnings call in early August of 2020, Lachlan Murdoch, the Executive Chairman of Fox News' parent company, praised Fox News' “ratings surge” and “strong advertising revenue,” led by anchors Tucker Carlson and Sean Hannity.

108. Adding to Fox News' bottom line, according to data released by Nielsen and reporting from The New York Times, “[i]n June and July of 2020, Fox News was the highest-rated television channel in the prime-time hours of 8 to 11 p.m. Not just on cable. Not just among news networks. All of television. The average live Fox News viewership in those hours outstripped cable rivals like CNN, MSNBC and ESPN, as well as the broadcast networks ABC, CBS and NBC, according to Nielsen.” See, <https://www.nytimes.com/2020/08/09/business/media/fox-news-ratings.html>.

109. Additionally, according to data from Kagan, the media research group within S&P Global Market Intelligence, Kagan's forecast predicts that “Fox News [] will make $1.32 billion in advertising [in 2020] alone.” See, <https://www.mediaite.com/tv/election-boom-heres-how-much-ad-money-cnn-fox-news-and-msnbc-are-expected-to-make-in-2020/>

VII. FOX NEWS' FAILURE TO ACT PROVIDED DEFENDANT HENRY WITH THE OPPORTUNITY TO RAPE MS. ECKHART

110. At approximately the exact same time Fox News was renewing Mr. O'Reilly's contract, the Company was fielding complaints from women about sexual misconduct perpetrated by Defendant Henry.

111. Indeed, starting in mid-2016, Fox News (through the law firm Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP ("Paul Weiss")) conducted a series of Company-wide investigations into issues of sexual harassment. During the investigations, multiple women came forward to complain that Defendant Henry had engaged in sexually inappropriate conduct towards them. According to reports, this was known to Fox News' Executive Vice President of Human Resources, Kevin Lord, as well as Fox News President and Executive Editor, Jay Wallace, and Fox Business Network President, Lauren Petterson. Upon information and belief, these women came forward to complain before Ms. Eckhart was raped by Defendant Henry.

112. Adding fuel to the fire, these legitimate concerns were raised after Defendant Henry was exposed and later suspended for four months by Fox News in 2016 after having a 10-month long affair with a Las Vegas stripper.

113. According to reporting from NPR:

In 2017, a written complaint was filed to senior Fox [News] executives warning against giving [Mr.] Henry greater profile on the air, including as a substitute host and anchor, according to a former colleague with knowledge of those events.

The complaint said the prospect of [Mr.] Henry's greater prominence on Fox [News] was crushing for female colleagues after the network had promised sweeping changes following Ailes' ouster. Among those with whom the complaint was shared: Jay Wallace, [Fox News'] chief news executive, and Kevin Lord, the chief human relations executive who was brought in with the mandate to help transform the culture.

See <https://www.npr.org/2020/07/01/885956385/fox-news-host-newly-fired-for-sexual-misconduct-had-inspired-earlier-warning>. Upon information and belief, this written complaint was sent to Fox News prior to Defendant Henry raping Ms. Eckhart.

114. The Daily Beast has also reported on the fact that knowledge of Defendant Henry's sexual misconduct was a widespread "open secret" at Fox News:

Several current Fox News employees agree that [Mr.] Henry's reputation was well-known at Fox [News] [headquarters] long before the network gave him the boot. One staffer, who requested anonymity out of fear of retaliation from her Fox [News] bosses, recalled how she was repeatedly warned about [Mr.] Henry's behavior before she engaged in a sexual relationship with him beginning in November 2016 and ending March 2020.

<https://www.thedailybeast.com/ed-henrys-accusers-say-his-behavior-was-an-open-secret-at-fox-news>.

115. The same staffer further stated: "I think Fox News was aware of his behavior. His reputation was mixed. While some saw [Defendant Henry] as friendly and jovial, others believed he could be unpleasant and harsh-natured in the workplace. It was well-known he flirted with younger women in the office. I heard people say, in general, to be careful with him because of his flirtatious nature." <https://www.thedailybeast.com/ed-henrys-accusers-say-his-behavior-was-an-open-secret-at-fox-news>.

116. A different former staffer, who was herself allegedly sexually assaulted by yet another on-air talent at Fox News, stated that: "Fox [News] may be a big company, but things get around. Employees talk. I was sure to ask around among my female coworkers. Heck, I even heard it from some males who were aware about names I should stay away from or watch out for. [Mr.] Henry consistently came up." <https://www.thedailybeast.com/ed-henrys-accusers-say-his-behavior-was-an-open-secret-at-fox-news>.

117. Moreover, when news broke about Defendant Henry’s extramarital affair with the Las Vegas stripper in 2016 – prior to the rape – Ms. Claman told Ms. Eckhart, verbatim, “Oh [Ms. Eckhart], everyone at Fox News knows that [Mr.] Henry is a sex addict. That’s no secret.” Jane Doe 4, a former Fox News Senior Producer, also told Ms. Eckhart that she “[couldn’t] see how [Fox News] couldn’t” have known about Defendant Henry, and that “I feel like I knew about this even before I went to Fox. If not then, early on there.”

118. Thus, Fox News was at all relevant times aware that Defendant Henry was leveraging his position to coerce and groom young, impressionable women into sexual relationships.

119. By its inaction and further promotion of Defendant Henry, Fox News was telling its female employees, including Ms. Eckhart, that Defendant Henry was “untouchable” and that any further complaints about him would fall on deaf ears. In such an environment, Ms. Eckhart felt stifled in her ability to seek redress from management.

120. And yet, as it had done with Mr. O’Reilly, Fox News failed to take any meaningful disciplinary action or terminate Defendant Henry. Indeed, Fox News decided to look the other way and retain Defendant Henry even as complaints against him piled up, knowing that he engaged in serial sexual misconduct, because he was good for business – i.e., his presence at the network resulted in revenues for Fox News. Indeed, it has been reported that Defendant Henry was a “favorite of network management,” including Ms. Scott.

121. It was, upon information and belief, only matter of weeks or months after Fox News chose to ignore the complaints referred to supra at ¶¶ 110-111, 113, that Defendant Henry violently raped Ms. Eckhart.

122. While Ms. Eckhart's life would never be the same from that point forward, Fox News continued to reward Defendant Henry.

123. Indeed, according to reporting by NPR,

After the scandal in 2016, [Mr.] Henry revived his career. He became the substitute host of Fox & Friends Weekend and a chief national correspondent. In December [2019], he became the co-host of the morning show America's Newsroom. That revival was conditioned on [Mr.] Henry's completion of a sexual addiction rehabilitation program according to several former colleagues.

His career resurgence became a source of consternation for some co-workers. Several former colleagues tell NPR that over the years, [Mr.] Henry proved aggressively flirtatious with younger, female Fox staffers. He sometimes sent graphic notes and even graphic images to them, according to these colleagues.

<https://www.npr.org/2020/07/01/885956385/fox-news-host-newly-fired-for-sexual-misconduct-had-inspired-earlier-warning>.

124. Moreover, HarperCollins, an affiliate of Fox News, subsequently gave Defendant Henry a lucrative book deal which resulted in him becoming a New York Times Best-Selling author.

125. Fox News later rewarded Defendant Henry with a new streaming show on Fox Nation called, "Ed Henry's Front Row Seat," and HarperCollins gave Defendant Henry yet another book deal.

126. In December 2019, despite the fact that Fox News was well aware of Defendant Henry's inappropriate sexual misconduct, it was announced that Defendant Henry was promoted to the position of co-anchor of the "America's Newsroom" program, in which he would anchor three hours of national television programming Monday through Friday.

127. Upon hearing the news and receiving an email from Fox News executives praising Defendant Henry and announcing his promotion, Ms. Eckhart burst into tears and ran to the nearest bathroom at Fox News to throw up after seeing that her abuser was rewarded such a highly coveted anchor position at the network.

128. Fellow colleagues of Ms. Eckhart's at Fox News even gossiped around the entire network, stunned that the network's executives would make such a reckless decision to promote Defendant Henry, a known sexual predator, to anchor of "America's Newsroom." One such colleague who was "stunned" by Fox News Channel's inept decision to promote such a sexual deviant was Fox Business Senior Correspondent Charlie Gasparino. Mr. Gasparino, during a conversation with Ms. Eckhart and their colleague Milane Kapadia, stated that Defendant Henry never should have been promoted to such a position.

129. It was approximately around this time that Defendant Henry continued to further abuse his position of power at Fox News to sexually harass Cathy Areu, as described infra.

130. When this lawsuit was initially filed, Fox News issued a public statement claiming that no one had complained to Fox News about Defendant Henry and his sexual misconduct until Ms. Eckhart put the Company on notice of her claims. This is simply not true.

131. In reality, Fox News knew that Defendant Henry had engaged in a pattern and practice of sexual misconduct – some former and current female staffers even referred to his sexual harassment as an "open secret" at the Company. Fox News was also aware of Defendant Henry allegedly seeking treatment for sex addiction, but made the conscious decision not to take appropriate measures to protect its female employees from him.

132. Fox News' actions only further emboldened Defendant Henry, allowing him to obtain increasingly greater power and prominence to engage in further sexual misconduct toward vulnerable female employees.

133. Fox News was at all times aware that if it took action in response to the complaints about Defendant Henry, it would potentially be costing itself millions of dollars. The Company further knew that, so long as it employed Defendant Henry, he would continue to prey on innocent young women. Fox News therefore effectively entered into a devil's bargain – so long as Defendant Henry was continuing to generate revenue for the Company, it was willing to look the other way and even provide him access to additional victims.

VIII. DEFENDANT HENRY'S LONG HISTORY OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT AND MISOGYNY

A. Brooke Hammerling

134. Ms. Hammerling works in media relations and met Defendant Henry when he was employed with CNN.

135. According to Ms. Hammerling, when she met Defendant Henry, “he definitely made the moves on me and I said no which was fine; I felt like swatting him away like a fly. He was not someone that would directly impact my job so I didn't really care. But was stunned by the openness and the swiftness of the sexual nature of his messages to me. Even when I tried to just brush them off and think he was just a horny little dude... and tr[ied] to keep it professional and email or text I can't recall... he would always come back with something sexual and perverted.”

136. Ms. Hammerling started a media relations company where she was introduced to Defendant Henry.

137. As he has done with several other female victims, Defendant Henry made sexual advances toward Ms. Hammerling almost immediately upon meeting her.

138. When Ms. Hammerling mentioned Defendant Henry's lascivious behavior to other women in the communications industry, they would knowingly roll their eyes and confirm that he was known to be a "horn dog."

139. On August 31, 2020, Ms. Hammerling tweeted the following message: "No chance @foxnews didn't know about Ed Henry. He was a menace to many of us on the comm[unication]s side when he was at @cnn and everyone talked about it. Literally so so so gross."

B. Roxie Marroquin

140. Ms. Marroquin was dating a Fox News Whitehouse correspondent and colleague of Defendant Henry's in 2015 when Defendant Henry reached out to her through a private Twitter DM.²

² <https://www.truehollywoodtalk.com/woman-claims-ex-fox-news-anchor-ed-henry-sends-private-investigator-to-silence-her-from-exposing-their-extra-marital-rendezvous/>.

141. Ms. Marroquin, who was at the time only 25 years old and seeking a mentor in the media industry, asked Defendant Henry to “meet up...just as friends of course,” and suggested that “maybe [he] c[ould] teach [her] a few things about the industry.”

142. Defendant Henry, seizing yet another opportunity to take advantage of a young woman, began texting Ms. Marroquin sexual messages, including stating that she had a “tight body” and “must have given [her ex-boyfriend] amazing sex.” The then-Fox News Chief White House Correspondent invited her to meet him at The Wynn hotel in Las Vegas, Nevada where he was staying at the time.

143. When Ms. Marroquin arrived at the Wynn hotel – after telling Defendant Henry that she only wanted to be friends – Defendant Henry asked her to go back to his hotel room, purportedly because he did not want people to recognize him in public.

144. When the two arrived at his hotel room, Defendant Henry drew up a bubble bath and directed Ms. Marroquin to join him in it. According to Ms. Marroquin, “I was honestly kind of afraid and frozen. I wasn’t sure what to do in the moment. I felt trapped, in a way, like, ‘oh man, did I give this person the wrong impression? What happens if I don’t do this?’ It was a lot of emotions. So, I ended up getting in the bathtub. Fully nude. How this happens to a 25-year-old, I can’t explain, besides fear of rejecting him.”

145. After she got into the bathtub, Defendant Henry began touching her breasts and vagina and asked her to touch him. Ms. Marroquin submitted to the pressure of Defendant Henry’s advances.

146. Soon thereafter, Defendant Henry began to panic out of fear that Ms. Marroquin would expose their sexual encounter. He began sending her harassing messages demanding that she meet with him and threatening her. In one message, Defendant Henry wrote: “If you are talking [to a magazine] I am pushing back super hard and pointing out [her ex-boyfriend] so that I tell the truth. Tell me you are not talking or I am going to [the] magazine to push back hard.”

147. Defendant Henry subsequently arranged to meet with Ms. Marroquin at a restaurant in Washington, D.C. However, when Ms. Marroquin arrived at the restaurant with her son, she was, instead, confronted by a private investigator who told her to “keep her mouth closed” and that he knew where she lived. He also threatened that Defendant Henry would sue her.

148. In Ms. Marroquin’s words: “I have nothing to hide...Ed Henry is a sexual predator. I do know that he preys on girls who are very young and very impressionable.”

C. Jane Doe 1

149. Jane Doe 1 currently works as an Associate Producer for Fox News in Washington, D.C. where she first met Defendant Henry.

150. Shortly after Defendant Henry met Ms. Doe 1, he inappropriately sent her a picture of his penis.

151. Jane Doe 1 later learned that he had sent a similar “dick pic” to another junior female employee at Fox News (“Jane Doe 2”).

152. Despite being warned about Defendant Henry’s lascivious behavior, Ms. Doe 1 entered into a relationship with Defendant Henry, seduced by his senior position and high profile, all enabled by Fox News.

153. Ms. Doe 1 has described her relationship with Defendant Henry as emotionally abusive. She further stated that she was “taken advantage of because I was much younger than him. There was a power imbalance.”

154. Throughout their relationship, Defendant Henry would engage in textbook patterns of abuse. He would lavish Ms. Doe 1, a current Fox News staffer, with expensive gifts and profess his love for her while at the same time saying “fuck you” to her anytime she disagreed with him or objected to his abusive behavior. Ms. Doe 1 also told Ms. Eckhart in a text message that Defendant Henry often referred to her as a “whore.” Ms. Doe 1 also informed Ms. Eckhart that when she got promoted to Associate Producer at Fox News, Defendant Henry laughed in her face, and told her that she would “never amount to success.”

155. It wasn’t until later that Ms. Doe 1 found out that Defendant Henry was professing his “love” to her during the same time period in which he violently raped Ms. Eckhart in a hotel room paid for by Fox News.

156. Ms. Doe 1 told Ms. Eckhart in a text message that, during a sexual encounter, Defendant Henry “slapped her face so hard that she cried right away.” Ms. Doe 1 also told Ms. Eckhart in a text that Defendant Henry’s abusive behavior caused her to have severe depression.

157. Additionally, Ms. Doe 1 informed Ms. Eckhart that Defendant Henry was “extra predator-like” and “used many of his sex toys on her,” and even coerced her into having inappropriate sex with him on top of his New York City office desk at Fox News on June 9, 2019.

158. Similarly, in late 2019/early 2020, Ms. Doe 1 confronted Defendant Henry about the inappropriate messages he was exchanging with Ms. Cathy Areu (described infra). Defendant Henry sought to evade responsibility by claiming it was “innocent flirting.”

159. Yet another female friend (“Jane Doe 3”) informed Ms. Doe 1 that, when she first started her career in the journalism industry, Defendant Henry asked her to come to his hotel room when he was visiting Los Angeles, California. This woman took another female friend with her to his hotel room so that she would not have to go alone. Once there, Defendant Henry plied the two young women with alcohol, tried to seduce them and attempted to kiss Ms. Doe 3, who rejected his advances. When Ms. Doe 1 confronted Defendant Henry about this, he brushed her complaints aside, claiming that his behavior was “innocent.”

160. After this action was filed, Ms. Doe 1 tweeted her support for Ms. Eckhart. In a blatant and desperate attempt to bully and intimidate Ms. Doe 1, an executive with Fox News’ Human Resources immediately called her and demanded to know why she was publicly supporting Ms. Eckhart, a former colleague and victim of sexual assault.

161. Ms. Doe 1 informed Ms. Eckhart in a text message that she and numerous other women remain scared to come forward to Fox News’ Human Resources Department due to fear of retaliation “because of how they fired Ms. Eckhart.”

D. Jane Doe 4

162. Ms. Doe 4 is a former Senior Producer at Fox News.

163. Before Ms. Doe 4 joined Fox News, she worked as a news producer at a local station.

164. According to Ms. Doe 4: “[Defendant Henry] actually DMed me when I was a LOCAL news producer in [] and 23 years old – I was taken aback but engaged a bit – but when it was clear what he was after I stopped. But then we ended up working together I had to tell him I was going to FOX. No real issues once I was there but I think it’s clear this is his MO. My main takeaway from it was just how reckless he was.”

E. Cathy Areu

165. In or around 2017, Ms. Areu became a regular “analyst” on Fox News. She could be seen on the network approximately five or more times per week, including appearances on the most highly rated programs on Fox News, including “Tucker Carlson Tonight,” “Media Buzz with Howard Kurtz,” “Hannity,” “The Ingraham Angle,” “Outnumbered,” “Fox and Friends,” “Fox and Friends First,” “Watters’ World,” “The Story with Martha MacCallum,” “Fox News @ Night” with Shannon Bream, Neil Cavuto’s “Cavuto Live,” “Your World” and “Coast to Coast.”

166. In 2018, Ms. Areu became particularly well known for her segments on “Tucker Carlson Tonight,” where she was given one of four regular segments on the show, appearing on a regular basis as “The Liberal Sherpa.”

167. In 2018, “Tucker Carlson Tonight” was the second highest-rated show on Fox News (after “Hannity”)³ and Ms. Areu appeared at least 22 times.

168. Indeed, Ms. Areu’s “Liberal Sherpa” segments garnered tens of millions of views and continue to be accessible on Fox News’ website. They were also for a time, and may still be, the most viewed segments on Fox News.

169. As a result of the success of Ms. Areu’s appearances, the “Tucker Carlson Tonight” show created individualized graphics and an audio package for Ms. Areu’s “Liberal Sherpa” appearances.

170. In April 2018, Ron Mitchell, the Vice President of Primetime Programming at Fox News, told Ms. Areu that “The Liberal Sherpa” segment was “the best re-occurring segment in many years” and said: “You now have what so many on-air personalities take many years to develop – your own catchphrase!” In June 2018, Mr. Mitchell emailed Ms. Areu with the subject heading: “You are getting your own special!” and in the body of the email wrote: “On Tucker’s show on July 4 – nothing but the Liberal Sherpa.”

³ See <https://thehill.com/homenews/media/421114-fox-news-wins-2018-ratings-race-msnbc-has-its-best-year-ever>.

171. As a result, in 2018, Ms. Areu began having serious conversations with a myriad of employees at Fox News, regarding being brought on-board as a paid contributor, including Mr. Mitchell. In July 2018, after a Liberal Sherpa segment on “theybies” went viral, Mr. Mitchell emailed the following to Ms. Areu: “They think it will hit 20 million by the end of the week!” He then stated: “And I just remembered that I owed you [an] answer on meetings with executives. ... I know that you are already on the list.”

172. During that time, Ms. Areu also began working with her agent at William Morris and was nearing the “financials” stage of a contract with Fox News. According to Ms. Areu’s agent, Fox News was in final discussions to bring her on board as an official paid contributor.

173. After Defendant Henry hosted a primetime show, “The Story with Martha MacCallum” in New York City in May 2019, Defendant Henry spoke to Ms. Areu about his recent surgery. The two took a picture together with Ms. Areu’s phone, which she then shared with Defendant Henry. As a result, Defendant Henry had succeeded in obtaining Ms. Areu’s cell phone number. Almost immediately after receiving her cell number, Defendant Henry began sending Ms. Areu a slew of wildly inappropriate sexual images, messages and videos through the first half of 2020, including many texts in which he implied that Ms. Areu should have sex with him and that he would assist Ms. Areu’s career if she did so.

174. Ms. Areu did her best to change the subject by discussing current events and other news-related topics, while also attempting to ensure that he was not angry that she refused to “play along” with his sexually inappropriate text messages.

175. However, as the text messages continued, so did Defendant Henry’s wildly grotesque and inappropriate texts to Ms. Areu. Examples include, among others:

- A “close-up” photograph of a woman’s vagina being “clamped” closed by clothespins;

- A photograph of an individual wearing a mask that has a large penis in lieu of a nose and Defendant Henry's message: "Did you miss me?";
- A photograph of a vibrator faux smoking a cigarette;
- A photograph with a woman with her mouth open and tongue extended, with a man's hands pulling her towards his midsection, captioned "In case you wondering ... the male g-spot is located at the back of a woman's throat;"
- A photograph of a woman's rear end and vagina modified to include the features of a bunny rabbit (this was sent on Easter);
- A woman wearing nothing but three masks, in which her entire body is exposed other than her breasts and vagina;
- A photograph of a rubber glove where each finger appears to be a dildo and/or ribbed like a condom;
- A video of a woman running across the room and jumping towards a camera – her skirt lifts up and the video ends with a closeup of her vagina; and
- A video entitled "Fastest Interview ... candidate selected in 3 seconds." In the video, a female purportedly interviewing for a position exposes her vagina, after which the male interviewer indicates that she got the job.

176. As noted, the "fastest interview" video shows a purported interviewee flashing her vagina to the interviewer, who immediately offers her the job.

177. Immediately after Defendant Henry sent Ms. Areu this video, he texted her, "Are you avail for anchor interview."

178. Defendant Henry knew that Ms. Areu was looking for full-time work at Fox News, and was telling her, in no uncertain terms, that he would assist her career if she had sex with him.

179. On May 21, 2020, Defendant Henry asked Ms. Areu to speak over the phone. Ms. Areu was direct with Defendant Henry and asked whether he thought that Fox News might be hiring. Defendant Henry then made it clear what he expected from Ms. Areu if she wanted his assistance. Specifically, he started berating her for being “boring” and “not who [he] thought [she] w[as].” After Ms. Areu did not assuage Defendant Henry’s concerns by indicating that she was not “boring” (i.e., that she would be willing to engage in sexual acts with him), Defendant Henry ended the call.

180. Over the following two weeks, Ms. Areu, attempting to salvage the relationship (in order to salvage her career), pitched various story ideas. When Defendant Henry failed to even respond, she wrote to him, “Wait, you haven’t written to me since we spoke. I sucked that bad?” Defendant Henry – making it clear that he was unhappy that Ms. Areu had decided not to sleep with him in exchange for his assistance with her career – wrote, “Nah you decided to be a jerk which made me sad.” Of course, Defendant Henry was simply fishing for Ms. Areu to change her mind and sleep with him. When she failed to do so, he simply wrote, “All good. Hope Florida is fabulous.”

181. In her separate federal action, Ms. Areu also alleges that she was sexually harassed by other on-air talent at Fox News and retaliated against when she rebuffed those advances and engaged in protected activity. The allegations in Ms. Areu’s federal complaint are incorporated herein by reference.

IX. DEFENDANTS FURTHER RETALIATE AGAINST MS. ECKHART

182. On June 25, 2020, Ms. Eckhart, through counsel, put Fox News on notice that she retained legal counsel in connection with legal claims against Defendant Henry and Fox News.

183. Ms. Eckhart's legal counsel explained to Fox News that Defendant Henry, approximately twice Ms. Eckhart's age, preyed upon, manipulated and groomed Ms. Eckhart starting at the young age of 24 by exerting his abuse of power over her and her career.

184. Ms. Eckhart's counsel described to Fox News, in graphic and specific detail, how Defendant Henry groomed, psychologically manipulated and coerced Ms. Eckhart into having a sexual relationship with him, and that, when she would not comply voluntarily, he sexually assaulted her on office property, and raped her at a hotel where Fox News frequently lodged its visiting employees.

185. Ms. Eckhart's counsel also explained to Fox News, in graphic and specific detail, that Ms. Eckhart was violently raped while helpless and restrained in metal handcuffs, as Defendant Henry performed sadistic acts on her without her consent that left her injured, bruised and battered with bloody wrists and a bloody lip.

186. To be clear, Ms. Eckhart did not consent to any part of this violent, painful rape. The day after this rape, as noted above, Ms. Eckhart told Defendant Henry in writing that he had physically injured her. Ms. Eckhart told him that she had sore wrists (they were actually bleeding), a mark on her buttocks, a broken nail and a bruise on her leg, among other injuries. Ms. Eckhart's counsel shared this information with Fox News.

187. Ms. Eckhart's counsel also shared with Fox News the existence of certain text messages that establish Defendant Henry's delusions and prove his violence and the non-consensual nature of their relationship.

188. On July 1, 2020, Fox News disclosed to the public that it had terminated Defendant Henry based on the findings of an internal investigation, and purported to take credit for acting appropriately.

189. Fox News' press release announcing the termination of Defendant Henry was completely disingenuous, and intentionally downplayed the severity of the situation by characterizing Defendant Henry's actions as merely "sexual misconduct." Fox News was trying to avoid taking accountability for what actually happened; namely, that one of its most prominent on-air personalities – with a history of multiple sexual harassment complaints – sexually assaulted and raped Ms. Eckhart.

190. Moreover, Fox News did not even have the courtesy to notify Ms. Eckhart or her legal counsel of the fact that it would be terminating Defendant Henry from his prominent anchor position. Thus, she was left to learn of this decision from the media, Twitter and former work colleagues. Fox News also sent an internal memo to thousands of Fox News employees, including all of Ms. Eckhart's friends and former colleagues at the Company, about the decision to terminate Defendant Henry without consulting with or notifying Ms. Eckhart. This conduct on the part of Fox News is abhorrent, and, of course, only served to greatly increase the severe emotional trauma and post-traumatic stress that Ms. Eckhart is experiencing as a result of coming forward so publicly against her abuser and former employer.

191. In fact, due to Fox News' retaliatory actions and complete mishandling of the situation, Ms. Eckhart has had to seek weekly therapy from a trauma specialist at a Crime Victims Treatment Center in New York City.

192. While Fox News attempted to "take credit" for terminating Defendant Henry, their decision was not only "too little too late," but was done only because Ms. Eckhart, whom the Company had already retaliated against, engaged in protected activity by retaining counsel, reporting that she had been sexually harassed, assaulted and raped by Defendant Henry, and indicated her intention to commence litigation.

193. However, the retaliation against Ms. Eckhart did not stop there.

194. On August 7, 2020, Fox News served a motion for Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 sanctions (“Rule 11 Motion”) upon Ms. Eckhart’s counsel. Although the Rule 11 Motion purported to be aimed at Ms. Areu and Wigdor LLP, Fox News took the opportunity to retaliate against Ms. Eckhart by: (i) asserting that Ms. Areu was used as part of a conspiracy to extort Fox News and obtain a settlement for the benefit of Ms. Eckhart, thereby implying, if not outright stating, that Ms. Eckhart attempted to extort Fox News; and (ii) including within the motion a completely misleading reference to settlement communications between Fox News and Wigdor LLP in order to paint Ms. Eckhart out to be a greedy extortionist rather than a victim of sexual harassment, assault and rape.

195. Fox News knew that the Rule 11 Motion was frivolous and legally untenable, but nonetheless served it upon counsel to intimidate, harass and retaliate against Ms. Eckhart and Ms. Areu, as well as their counsel.

196. Then, on September 29, 2020, Fox News filed the Rule 11 Motion, again, to further harass and retaliate against Ms. Eckhart and Ms. Areu, as well as their counsel.

197. As if these actions by Fox News did not cause enough emotional distress, harm and public humiliation, on October 19, 2020, Defendant Henry filed a motion to dismiss Ms. Eckhart’s claims to which he annexed various photographs allegedly depicting Ms. Eckhart in a nude or partially nude state.

198. In short, Defendant Henry often forcefully demanded that Ms. Eckhart send him photographs of herself for his own sexual gratification. Ms. Eckhart sometimes obliged, both to avoid retaliation and in the hopes that he would leave her alone if she sent a photograph. Due to Defendant Henry’s incessant demands of Ms. Eckhart, she sometimes sent Defendant Henry photographs of other women that she found on the Internet because she was extremely uncomfortable sending such intimate photographs of herself. Thus, five of the photographs attached to Defendant Henry's widely inappropriate motion are not even of Ms. Eckhart, a fact that Defendant Henry likely knew when he submitted them to intentionally mislead the Court. It was therefore clear that Defendant Henry was motivated by the desire to publicly harm and humiliate Ms. Eckhart by falsely claiming that she sent him certain graphic pictures.

199. However, the remaining images were highly sensitive photographs that Ms. Eckhart had an understandable interest in keeping private. Moreover, the Court determined that they "should not have been filed" in connection with Defendant Henry's motion to dismiss.

200. Defendant Henry and his legal team also included Ms. Eckhart's personal cell phone number in two other exhibits that were filed publicly with the Court, thereby "doxing" her, a common tactic employed by sexual harassers online.

201. Defendant Henry's conduct in this regard was vile and simply abhorrent, as rape can never be "justified" or "excused."

202. Clinical psychologist Chloe Carmichael provided a quote to The Daily Beast about Defendant Henry's tactic to release such explicit photos of Ms. Eckhart stating, "It could feel like a re-enactment of the original trauma for an alleged victim to have compromising photographs wallpapered on the Internet by the accused rapist. It could make the alleged victim feel like the alleged attacker has the power to humiliate her over and over again in a public format. Having those images plastered all over the Internet by her attacker or agents of the attacker could trigger a re-living of the experience of losing control over her own body." See <https://www.thedailybeast.com/ex-fox-news-anchor-ed-henry-accused-of-pushing-revenge-porn-in-retaliation-for-sexual-assault-claim>.

203. As “revenge porn” expert Carrie Goldberg, Esq. explained: “The decision to consensually share an image does not impeach a person’s credibility about nonconsensual sex. Being a recipient of a sexy image is not an invitation nor does it entitle a person to commit an assault. This type of attempted slut-shaming and weaponization of lawsuits makes rape victims think that they – and their allegations – will be seen as less credible because at some point there existed photos of them wearing underwear. The legal strategy here is baffling.” See <https://www.thedailybeast.com/ex-fox-news-anchor-ed-henry-accused-of-pushing-revenge-porn-in-retaliation-for-sexual-assault-claim>.

204. TIME’S UP Foundation official Latifa Lyles told The Daily Beast: “Degrading tactics have been used to intimidate or coerce victims into silence for generations, and we are not going to just let that happen anymore... I imagine Ed Henry’s team is aware of one of the most toxic myths about rape: that a victim would never send friendly or flirtatious messages or photos to a perpetrator. This is a line of defense that perpetrators have used for generations – that survivors somehow ‘asked for it.’ Well that just couldn’t be further from the real-world experiences of survivors. Because most perpetrators of sexual violence are known to their victims, ongoing contact is not uncommon, especially when the abuser or harasser has power over their victim’s career.” See <https://www.thedailybeast.com/ex-fox-news-anchor-ed-henry-accused-of-pushing-revenge-porn-in-retaliation-for-sexual-assault-claim>.

205. Indeed, many women never face or speak out against their abusers for fear of retaliation and being “victim shamed” as Ms. Eckhart was.

206. Moreover, upon information and belief, Fox News was aware of and ratified the retaliatory decision to file these highly sensitive photographs. Indeed, it has now become a common practice for Fox News employees purportedly terminated for wrongdoing, like Defendant Henry, to retain Catherine Foti, Esq. and engage in retaliatory litigation in cases in which Fox News is a co-defendant.

207. Specifically, as alleged in the matter of Brown, et al. v. Fox News Network, LLC, et al., Index No: 22446/2017E:

As described herein, [p]laintiffs and other dark-skinned employees suffered years-long relentless racial animus at the hands of their white supervisor, Slater, an eighteen-year employee and former Senior Vice President (“SVP”) of Accounting and Controller of Fox [News]. Despite being well aware of Slater’s racist conduct, executives at Fox [News] did nothing to put an end to it and intentionally turned a blind eye. For years, Fox [News] permitted Slater to subject [p]laintiffs and other dark-skinned employees to a racially hostile work environment without fear of punishment or reprisal, and refused to terminate Slater for her conduct or, upon information and belief, even reprimand her in anyway.

That all changed last week, when [p]laintiffs’ attorneys, Wigdor LLP, put [Fox News] on notice that [p]laintiffs would not capitulate to Fox [News]’ demands and would be filing this lawsuit. Fox [News]’ public relations machine went into full gear. In an effort to get out ahead of this lawsuit and pretend to care about the discriminatory conduct committed against [p]laintiffs, upon information and belief, Fox [News] leaked some of the allegations contained herein to the press. The leak was on a Friday, a day notoriously used to bury stories. Fox [News] terminated Slater as well.

To be clear, Ms. Slater was not terminated because she engaged in discriminatory conduct – Fox [News] was willing to let her get away with that for years. Rather, Slater was terminated because Fox [News] knew this would become a public matter and wanted to salvage its reputation.

Id., Dkt. No. 1 at ¶¶ 1-3.

208. Ms. Slater ultimately retained Ms. Foti to represent her. When Ms. Foti filed Ms. Slater’s answer, rather than simply admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint in that action, Ms. Foti included a 19-page preliminary statement in which she: (i) accused the plaintiffs and Wigdor LLP of extortion; and (ii) presented allegations concerning cherry-picked purported “evidence” to make the plaintiffs look like liars because they were at times friendly with their harasser. Id., Dkt. No. 152 at pp. 1-19.

209. Upon information and belief, Fox News steered both Ms. Slater and Defendant Henry to Ms. Foti and, in both cases, worked with Ms. Foti to prepare harassing and retaliatory litigation to paint the plaintiffs (in this case, Ms. Eckhart) out to be liars and extortionists by exposing them to victim blaming and, in Ms. Eckhart’s case, “victim shaming.”

210. The claim that Fox News intended to subject Ms. Eckhart to retaliation is further supported by their choice of counsel in this action. Proskauer Rose LLP (“Proskauer”) generally, and its partners Ms. McKenna and Mr. Chinn (both of whom have appeared in this action), specifically, have a history of filing retaliatory litigation, including preemptive retaliatory actions, retaliatory counterclaims and retaliatory Rule 11 motions.⁴ Several of these retaliatory

⁴ See, e.g., Bertram v. Proskauer Rose LLP, No. 17 Civ. 00901 (ABJ) (D.D.C., 2017) (Partner Connie Bertram alleged that she was subjected to gender discrimination and that she was retaliated against by Proskauer after making complaints and retaining counsel, whose defense team was led by Ms. McKenna. The retaliation included threats of termination.); Campbell v. Chadbourne & Parke LLP, No. 16 Civ. 6832 (JPO), 2017 WL 2589389, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. (Proskauer client represented by Mr. Chinn filed motion for sanctions against a gender discrimination and Sarbanes-Oxley Act whistleblower employee plaintiff for utilizing company documents in opposition to a pre-discovery motion for summary judgment (the documents demonstrated that the motion and some of the representations underlying it were meritless). Both motions by the defendant employer were denied.); Keller v. Loews Corp., 69 A.D.3d 451, 451 (1st Dep’t 2010) (Proskauer client asserted a counterclaim for a purported breach of fiduciary duty against a religious disability discrimination Claimant); Tapestry, Inc. v. Gibb, Index No. 653042/2018 (N.Y. Sup. Ct.) (Within three weeks after a multi-year employee of Stuart Weitzman filed a sexual harassment lawsuit, the company, represented by Proskauer, responded by firing him without notice and filing suit against him – for a purported breach of contract – through which it sought to claw back all of the compensation it had paid to him as an employee.); McLaughlin v. Macquarie Capital (USA) Inc., No. 17 Civ. 9023 (RA) (S.D.N.Y.) (Proskauer client responded to a discrimination lawsuit by filing a declaratory judgment action against the claimant in AAA (seeking a determination that it had not discriminated against the claimant)); Brown Jordan Int’l, actions have been taken against Wigdor LLP and its clients. It is inconceivable that Fox News did not know this when it retained Proskauer.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(Negligence)
Against Defendant Fox News

267. Plaintiff hereby repeats, recites and realleges each and every allegation in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth fully herein.

268. As set forth above, Defendant Fox News knew of, or was negligent or recklessly indifferent to, the fact that Defendant Henry engaged in a pattern and practice of sexual misconduct with women, including female employees, prior to the time that he raped Ms. Eckhart.

269. Defendant Fox News' conduct described herein, including, but not limited to, the negligent retention, training, discipline, and/or supervision of Defendant Henry, by knowingly assisting and facilitating Defendant Henry with the resources and authority to engage in sexual misconduct and by helping to "clean up after" and "cover up" the sexual misconduct, including by failing to investigate legitimate claims of sexual misconduct and refusing to remediate or take action against Defendant Henry upon learning of Defendant Henry's sexual misconduct, resulted in his commission of such assaults against Plaintiff.

270. Based on prior complaints against and incidents involving Defendant Henry and other powerful men at the Company, among other reasons, Defendant Fox News knew or reasonably should have known that Defendant Henry regularly engaged in sexual misconduct and would use his position with Fox News to sexually pressure and commit sexual misconduct and coercive sexual abuse against Plaintiff and other women.

271. Defendant Fox News had a duty of care to properly hire, train, retain/terminate, supervise and/or discipline their employees and executives (including Defendant Henry himself) to avoid unreasonable harm to others or to take steps to alleviate harm caused by his affirmative conduct.

272. Defendant Fox News reasonably and foreseeably, did know or should have known, that Defendant Henry would inflict such harm on Plaintiff.

273. Defendant Fox News' negligent and/or affirmative conduct in relation to Defendant Henry's propensity to engage in sexual misconduct towards women and Ms. Eckhart in particular was a substantial factor in causing Plaintiff's harm.

274. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Fox News' negligent and/or affirmative conduct, and as a direct and proximate result of Defendant Fox News turning a blind eye to the outrageously abusive, predatory sexual culture that it allowed and enabled, as described above, Plaintiff has suffered physical injury, severe emotional distress, humiliation, embarrassment, mental and emotional distress and anxiety and economic harm.

275. The conduct described above by Defendant Fox News was willful, wanton, malicious, knowingly reckless, and/or demonstrated complete disregard for its duty of care towards Ms. Eckhart and other women. At all relevant times, Defendant Fox News acted with conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights, welfare, and consent to acts by Defendant Henry and also acted with the knowledge of or with reckless disregard for the fact that its conduct was likely to cause injury and/or humiliation to Plaintiff. By virtue of the foregoing, Plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive and exemplary damages from Defendant Fox News.

276. The above-described conduct of Defendant Henry, which Fox News knowingly facilitated, constitutes a sexual offense as defined in Article One Hundred Thirty of the New York Penal Law ("Article 130"), and this cause of action is timely under the Adult Survivors Act N.Y. C.P.L.R. § 214-j (McKinney 2022).
